REPORT.
COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) The Ohio Republican Convention broke up and went home today in a state of contentment. The ticket included: For Governor—Warren G. Harding, of Marion.
For Lieutenant Governor—Francis W. Trumbull, of Cleveland.
For Secretary of State—Granville W. Mooney, of Austintown.
For Attorney General—U. Grant Denham, of Toledo.
For Treasurer—Rudy A. Archer, of Belmont county.
For Justice of the Supreme Court—William B. Crew, of McConville and Augustus N. Summers, of Springfield.
EVERYBODY'S SECOND CHOICE.
Warren G. Harding, the nominee for Governor was at various times in the preliminary squabbles of the convention described as "everybody's second choice." He is the editor of a newspaper at Marion, Ohio; has been Lieutenant Governor of the State and has been a tentative candidate for Governor and United States Senator. He is known in the State as an effective stump speaker.
Until today, however, it had appeared beyond reasonable expectation that the convention could arrive at the consideration of any second choice without a long and bitter struggle.
George B. Cox, of Cincinnati, had declared he would stay with Judge Oren B. Brown of Dayton to the thirty-first ballot if necessary; the "pro-Republicans" were refusing to consider anybody but James R. Garfield, who was not, however, an announced candidate; and the men ordinarily identified with the national administration side in State politics were supposed to be the Cincinnati man. On the third ballot by the time the vote had reached Hamilton county, the Longworth candidacy was advancing in great strides. Chairman Cox surrendered with discretion. He arose and cast the nine-one Hamilton county votes for Harding. The Longworth vote in Hamilton county was 124 to 164. Nearly all the progressives were voting for Harding. The seventy-six Clevelanders, who all voted for Longworth on the second and third roll calls, were yelling wildly for the Cincinnati man. On the third ballot by the time the vote had reached Hamilton county, the Longworth candidacy was advancing in great strides. Chairman Cox surrendered with discretion. He arose and cast the nine-one Hamilton county votes for Harding. The Longworth vote in Hamilton county was 124 to 164. Nearly all the progressives were voting for Harding.

Proposed Alteration of King's Accession Oath Causes Thousands of Subjects to Sign Petitions to Lower House.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
LONDON, July 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Sandwich men" parading the streets and bearing "No Popery" placards were seen today throughout the West End to the number of between 500 and 600. They were sent out by a church association as a protest against the proposed alteration of the King's accession declaration. The scenes recall the "No Popery" agitation of many years ago. The whole Liberal party is disturbed by the question and many meetings of Liberals have taken place in the House of Commons to discuss the subject. A general protest meeting was held tonight in Caxton Hall. Four hundred petitions against the bill embodying the King's altered declaration reached the House of Commons yesterday from Scotland and 300 more were delivered today. The signatures aggregate many hundreds of thousands. Twenty-five thousands and Canadians have addressed petitions to King George praying that he will retain the accession oath in its present form. The Protestant Alliance has notified members of the House of Commons that any one voting for the bill or in any way seeking to alter the declaration will be opposed by the alliance at the next election. The majority of Protestants appear to be willing to have the objectionable references to Catholicism left out of the declaration, but many of them are opposed to His Majesty's declaring himself "A member of the church as by law now established in England." Non-conformists wish the King to declare himself simply as a "faithful Protestant" without indicating any preference for the established church. If the government declines to yield to the demands of the malcontents it is likely that the country will be plunged into a bitter religious controversy. BUTTER FIGHT IN COMMONS.

A. Warren, the chairman, and John Campbell, voted unconditionally for the exoneration of Dr. Van Liew. The trustees, after the case had been admitted to them, retired into executive session. Only one vote was taken after a discussion of about an hour. This closed the five days of the hearing, during which dozens of witnesses were called by the State to sustain the charges made by the Gillett, and after fifty persons testified in behalf of Dr. Van Liew. Today the president's office, in the hearing has been held, was crowded. INSPECTOR DEW COULD EASILY SIGNAL THE MONTROSE.
Montreal Steamer Officials Calculate Relative Positions of Craft Bearing Scotland Yard Agent and Alleged Fugitives in Crippen Mystery—Officer May Wait at Montreal.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
MONTREAL, July 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Inspector Dew of Scotland Yard was at noon today possibly within hailing distance of Dr. Hawley H. Crippen of London and the doctor's former typist, Ethel Clara Le Neve, if the latter are aboard the west bound steamer Montrose.
This is the indication of calculations made here today by officials of the Canadian Pacific and White Star Steamship companies. It was stated that the Montrose of the former line and the Laurentic of the latter were at that hour abreast of each other on the Atlantic at 27 degrees west.
On the Montrose are two passengers suspected of being "Dr. Crippen" wanted at London in connection with the disappearance of his wife, Belle Elmore and Dr. Crippen's typist, the Laurentic bears Inspector Dew's report to have registered at the Crippen booking office at John Robinson and John Robinson, Jr.
Officials of both steamship companies are positive that no attempt will be made at sea to transfer Inspector Dew to the Montrose. They state that there will be no action until one or the other of the vessels reaches Father Point, Quebec, where a pilot is taken aboard to guide the vessel through the St. Lawrence.
The Laurentic is expected to arrive off Belle Island tomorrow, and the Montrose on Friday.
Whether Dew will leave his steamer at Father Point is uncertain. To do so necessitates special action of the immigration authorities at Ottawa. No authorization for Dew's landing has yet been issued and it is thought he will continue directly to Quebec and there await the Montrose.
In the meantime, Chief Constable Gavreau of the Dominion Police Force, with a warrant for Crippen's arrest is on duty at Father Point.

PORT LIMON (Costa Rica) July 27.
[Exclusive Dispatch.] The matter of American intervention in Nicaragua has taken one more step, and an important one in this country, by its being made the subject of an interpellation in the Congress. This was done by Deputy Anibal Santos, who wished to know what attitude the Costa Rican government intended to take in the matter.
The action of the deputy has caused a great deal of discussion in political circles. Señor Santos said the action of the American government was one of great moment for Central America, and especially so for Costa Rica, as this country would be crushed between two American protectorates.

Wickersham Engages Him in Warm Debates.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

ANCHORAGE, July 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Alaska has never before seen a political fight as that being waged against Wickersham for reelection as delegate in Congress. The Democratic Federation of Alaska has declared its opposition to Wickersham's reelection. It is difficult to tell who is for Wickersham, Juneau dispatches say opponents cannot be certain of his votes in August.

Alaska is a great number of uneducated men, their timidity makes them naturally pessimistic and inclined to follow the government. Wickersham is a man of wealth. His campaign seems to show that he is being won by the "interests" of the state. Wickersham will go for Graham, by a reduced majority, seems likely that the socialist mentioned will swing the election for Wickersham or Orr.

Wickersham, Alaska member of the National Republican Committee, is being won through Central Alaska by his platform of the letter Wickersham is alleged to have sent Stephen offering his services to the state at $15,000 per year.

Heads of men, helped by Orr along with the Fairbanks trial, with their shouting for Orr. Alaska is a state of evenness divided. Wickersham once made Orr the state of Tacoma, which makes his campaign of special interest.

CURTAIN.

PLATTE ORATOR IS DOWN AND OUT.

BRYAN, HUMILIATED, ABANDONS PARTY LEADERSHIP.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

LINCOLN (Neb.) July 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Philosophical in the face of his decisive defeat at the Democratic State convention last night, William J. Bryan returned today to Lincoln, content, he said, to become a humble worker in the ranks of the party of which he has for so many years been the acknowledged State leader.

Mr. Bryan made it plain that he had no intention of bolting, but at the same time, he said, he had not retracted one inch from the position he has assumed on the question of county option, and his war on the liquor interests.

He will use his influence for the nomination of Richard L. Metcalf for United States Senator, but if Mr. Metcalf falls at the primaries he will give the successful nominee at least fair support.

Friends of Mr. Bryan say it is doubtful if he takes an active part in the State campaign and it is a question, they say, whether the candidates of the Democratic ticket care to have him assist in view of his antagonism to the platform.

At the close of his impassioned plea at the Grand Island meeting, Mr. Bryan stated with bitterness that he was through directing the party. He realized, he said, that he had been friends in the house of his former friends and that he was ready to abdicate. It is now admitted that Gov. Schallenberger, the acknowledged leader of the Nebraska Democracy.

Wisconsin Democrats Appear to Favor Former Governor for General-Torialis Candidate.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

ST. PAUL, July 27.—With the opening of the Democratic State convention at Minneapolis tomorrow only a few hours away, the selection of a gubernatorial candidate seems as unsettled as ever. Indications are that the State at large will force the nomination for former Gov. John Lind, in spite of his own protests and the efforts of those party leaders who fear his alleged county option tendencies.

Among those mentioned as second choices of the convention are Congressman W. S. Hammond of St. James; Mayor James C. Haynes of Minneapolis; Judge C. W. Slanton of Bemidji; and John J. Ensworth of Duluth. Fred Johnson of New Ulm, a brother of the late Gov. John A. Johnson, is a possibility. It is said. He has already been mentioned as the nominee for Secretary of State.

RAWN INQUEST BEGINS.

Few Details So Far Developed—Insurance Men Are Nearly Killed in Automobile Wreck.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

WINNETKA (Ill.) July 27.—The coronor's inquest into the death of Ira O. Rawn, former president of the Stoner Railroad, who died of a bullet wound at his summer residence last Wednesday, was opened by Coroner Hoffman in the Winnetka Village Hall at 8 o'clock tonight.

Four witnesses, including Mrs. Rawn, had been examined up to 11 o'clock, but few details were developed in the mysterious case before the jury. Asked to explain, if she could, how she believed her husband met death, Mrs. Rawn said she thought Mr. Rawn either shot himself accidentally or that his own weapon was pushed against his body and discharged in a scuffle with a house-breaker.

Five representatives of various insurance companies, who were on their way to the inquest in an automobile, narrowly escaped death when their machine was run down by a Chicago and Milwaukee Interurban car at a grade crossing. Although the automobile was wrecked and thrown off the right of way, the occupants escaped.

PRESIDENT IS SATISFIED WITH NOMINATION OF MR. HARDING.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

BIDDEFORD POOL (Me.) July 27.—Wireless telegraph carried to President Taft the news of the nomination of Warren G. Harding as the Republican candidate for Governor of Ohio. Mr. Taft spent all but the early morning hours at sea. If he had planned with any special purpose of being difficult of access on the nominating day of the Ohio convention, he could not have devised a better schedule. To add to the difficulty of reaching him, the wireless on board the Mayflower worked badly. The President finally came ashore here at 6 o'clock.

Mr. Taft seemed pleased over the outcome in Ohio. He has a high estimate of Mr. Harding, and said that with the possible exception of former Gov. Foraker, he regarded Mr. Harding as the best campaigner in Ohio on either side.

The President made it plain today that he was not opposed to the nomination of Mr. Harding. Both in conversation with the Ohio leaders and in written communication, the President expressly stated that if Mr. Harding were the nominee, he would tender him his hearty support.

Mr. Taft related in this connection an incident of last February, when Mr. Harding called on him at the White House in Washington. Mr. Harding said he had come to the President because he had heard Mr. Taft had decided to support Mr. Harding for the nomination. The President replied that the report was entirely without foundation. He said he was not interfering in the Ohio situation in any way and would not.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

HARDING HOPEFUL.

"Then," said Mr. Harding, enthusiastically, "I will be the next Governor of Ohio."

Friends of the administration say that one feature of the Ohio situation which particularly pleased the President was the fact that the Cox faction did not succeed in controlling the convention.

The Presidential yacht remained in Casco Bay until well into the forenoon today. Mr. Taft went ashore at Portland on an automobile ride.

Landing in the Mayflower's launch on a little float here today, the President was met by a committee. The crowd weighed the float down to such an extent that it began to go under when the President stepped aboard and his feet got quite wet. Some of the people were hurried ashore from the float and the other members of the party landed. Mr. Taft will sail at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning for Bay City.

HIGH LICENSE PLANK WINS IN IOWA DEMOCRAT CONVENTION.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

ST. PAUL (Iowa) July 27.—Such towns and municipalities of Iowa as are willing to pay a high license for the sake of trafficking in liquor may do so in the event of Democratic success at the forthcoming gubernatorial election. At least the platform adopted at the convention of that party here today says so, but the pledge was not made without a fight, both in committee and on the floor.

Former Congressman Wade, chairman of the resolutions committee, defended the plank against a vigorous assault on the part of Gen. B. Weaver, of the Farmers' Canal, who declared that he was in the liquor party, which is known as the "liquor party," declared Mr. Wade, "Where a majority of a community desire liquor, they should have it, and vice versa. That is personal liberty, gentlemen, and it is Democracy."

"Sister" Hopkins Induces Governor to Set Free Man Who Robbed Many.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
TACOMA, July 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. F. Lora M. Hopkins, known as "Sister" Hopkins, who came from Spokane yesterday, induced Gov. Ray to pardon John P. Gamble of Spokane, sentenced to an indeterminate term of from one to fourteen years for highway robbery. Gamble was converted through the street preaching of "Sister" Hopkins and confessed to having robbed forty persons when he surrendered to the authorities. He has served the minimum and petitions for his discharge were signed by the prosecutor, judge and prominent citizens of Spokane, as well as by the prison authorities. The pardon was issued today.

Firemen to Rescue; Crowd Threatens Violence.

Officer Succeeds in Getting Prisoner to Jail.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
PORTLAND, July 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Grappling with a man who made a daring attempt to kidnap her 15-year-old daughter, Mrs. G. A. Patterson, No. 450 Eleventh street, fought him with all her strength until last night, but was being overcome when a rock thrown by her young son temporarily stunned the man. A moment later he was captured by city firemen.

While Arthur Hilsop, the prisoner, was held at the engine-house at Fourth and Montgomery streets, a crowd of more than 200 gathered around the quarters and when Patrolman Stark Lytle started with his prisoner to the patrol box, Hilsop was wrested from him by the crowd with the avowed purpose of doing him violence. Lytle, after a hard fight, recaptured the man and took him to the jail with the aid of other officers.

Mrs. Patterson with her daughter, Mary, and son, Arthur, aged 10, were on their way home when Hilsop began to follow them. At Fourth and Hall streets, Hilsop, who was with the family and grasped the girl in his arms. Mrs. Patterson threw herself upon him and the man dropped the half-fainting girl to combat with the mother.

In the struggle one of Mrs. Patterson's arms was torn by the man's nails, and her wrist wrenched until the bones almost broke, but she tenaciously clung to him. It was then that Arthur Patterson felled Hilsop with a rock, and a moment later half a dozen firemen rushed to the rescue.

SANITATION WAR AT HAND.

Board of Health Will Inspect Sewage at Hundred and Fifty-nine Resorts.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SACRAMENTO, July 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The State Board of Health is taking a practical method of getting after the summer resorts which are not living up to the letter of the law on sanitary matters. Dr. W. P. Snow, secretary of the board, has clipped the advertisements of summer resorts from the newspapers and pasted each one on a sheet of paper, upon which inspectors are to make detailed reports of the true sanitary conditions.

Dr. Snow has 135 resort regions which will be visited. Most advertisements say the places are healthful, yet it is often found that the sewer disposal systems are extremely at fault, so the places will be taken at their advertised statements and given the actual inspection.

Son of Late Judge Tilden Meets Death in African Wilds on Hunting Trip.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SACRAMENTO, July 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Frank N. Tilden of Sacramento was killed by an elephant he had wounded near Fort Jamieson, in Rhodesia, British Central Africa, May 28. News regarding Tilden's death has just been received in a letter from a friend by Capt. E. L. Hawk of Sacramento.

Frank Tilden was the son of Judge Tilden, well known in Nevada and in this section of the State. When Judge Tilden died he left his son considerable property in Sacramento, but just before the Boer war he went to South Africa and made money speculating in diamonds. He came back to Sacramento and after the Boer war again went to South Africa.

WIFE SEEKS DIVORCE.

Merchant Who Was Married at Oakland Is Alleged to Have Loosed Wife's Teeth.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
RENO, July 27.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Declaring that her husband told her that he would shoot her full enough of holes to sink a ship and treated her in a cruel manner, Mrs. Jessamine Price today sued Sterling Price for a divorce for extreme cruelty and non-support. Price is in Oakland. She alleges that they were married January 12, 1909, in Oakland, and that shortly after Price began leaving her alone when she was ill in bed, calling her vile and abusive names, striking her and injuring her. On one occasion, she avers, he knocked her teeth loose and cut her lip another time. She also declares he often threatened to kill her, once placing a revolver under his pillow so that it pointed toward her, and expressing the wish that it would go off and kill her and thus save him the trouble of doing so.

STORM VISITS SONORA.

CROPS HEAVILY DAMAGED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
DOUGLAS (Ariz.) July 27.—Reports reaching here tonight tell of a terrific storm in Northern Sonora. The great steel trestle at Nacoziari has been washed out, with heavy damages resulting to crops in the valley. The Nacoziari Railroad is tied up between here and Nacoziari. Inventor A. M. Williams this afternoon put his airplane on a big wagon and hastened out to the Sulphur Spring Valley for a preliminary flight, but the severe thunder storm broke just as the party reached the spot and the airplane trial had to be abandoned. The maiden flight of the machine is scheduled for tomorrow.

HAMILTON BUYS CURTIS.

Alleges Breaking of Contract and Unfair Conduct.
NEW YORK, July 27.—The protest of Charles K. Hamilton against Glenn H. Curtis for "alleged unfair and unbusinesslike and unfair conduct," will be acted on by the Executive Committee of the National Council of the Aero Club of America, Monday, August 1.

Hamilton contends that he has been barred from the coming meet of the Harvard Aeronautical Association because of representations made by Curtis to the management.

"Curtis," claims Hamilton in his letter of protest, "to have a contract with me to fly a Curtis aeroplane, I emphatically deny that he has any right to my services, the contract having been cancelled by him in writing over his own signature and by his own acts in breach thereof. Claims and counter-claims for damages are now pending in New York courts."

Aviation Meet Ends.
OMAHA, July 27.—Glenn H. Curtis and J. C. Mars made several successful flights at the aviation meet this evening, despite high winds. Curtis circled the field five times, and Mars made the circle three times. The meet ended with today's flight.

Drillable Sails Away.
BERLIN, July 27.—The dirigible balloon Grossa left at 11 o'clock tonight for a long trip. It is expected the dirigible would proceed as far as Gotha and carry out extensive experiments by wireless with a military crew.

MOTOR BOATS TO SPEED.
Five-Mile Handicap Race Is to Be Held on Avalon Bay, Catalina, Sunday Afternoon.

The fastest motor boats in the South are to compete in a five-mile handicap race on Avalon Bay, Catalina, Sunday afternoon, under the auspices of the Avalon Yacht Club Association.

Nine entries already have been received and as the contest will be an open event it is expected that the number of contestants will be double the present number of entries. The course will be either square or triangular, to be decided later.

Sunday morning the contestants will be sent over the course and they will be handicapped according to their respective showings in the trial heat. Trophies are to be awarded to the first three places winners.

The list of entries already received follows: Daisy, A. C. Parsons; Geo. H. Judge; Haden; Klatawa, Charles Fulton; Campbell, Joseph; Fulton, Irvin; Warren, Wood; Del Rey, C. J. Black; Fairbanks-Morse; Fairbanks-Morse Company, Pat. San Pedro.

Empire City Results.
EMPIRE CITY (N. Y.) July 27.—Amali, the favorite, won the East-West Handicap at 6 and one-half furlongs here today by four lengths.

Six furlongs: Floramel won, Dominus Aris second, Royal Captive third, time 1:14.5.

Five and one-half furlongs: Quincy Belle won, Alexandria second, Noesay third, time 1:08.1-5.

The mile and one-half furlongs: Shannon won, Apache second, Woodcraft third, time 1:41.4-5.

The Eastview Handicap, five and one-half furlongs: Amali won, Danger Mark second, War Jig third, time 1:07.2-5.

Mile: Zenap won, Darcia second, Archie third, time 1:40.2-5.

One and one-half miles: Arctic won, Shawnee second, Star Arrow third, time 1:48.

Johnson Confesses.
NEW HAVEN (CT.) July 27.—Jack Johnson admitted yesterday to a New Haven man that he formerly lived in this city. He was janitor at a cigar store here, and got a start toward the world's heavyweight championship by coaching from Ed Cox, the Yale colored football and rowing trainer, who gave Johnson his first ideas of scientific conditioning, and who put the colored giant physically on his feet.

The same owner's Mirambo finished second in the Prix Barter.

Results at Paris.
PARIS, July 27.—Katie, owned by W. K. Vanderbilt, today won the Prix Fribourg, which was run at Tremblay. The same owner's Mirambo finished second in the Prix Barter.

Davies Relapses.
CHICAGO, July 27.—"Parson" Davies, who was brought here from New York Sunday, is in a very weakened condition. It is announced. The intense heat which enveloped the city last night caused him to suffer a relapse.

FROM AFAR.
Walter Ellis, Miss Adelaide Cox, Miss Fannie Rowan, Miss Josephine Struss, Miss Helen May, Miss Laura McVay, Mrs. Sticker.

Junior singles: Eli Tottrell, Ray Harriman, Sheldon, Dixon, Emory Rogers, Marshall Ketchum.

Mixed doubles: Miss May Sutton and Browne, Miss Florence Sutton and Browne, Mrs. Bruce and Wayne, Mrs. Mary Browne and Sinsabaugh, Miss Golda Myer and Bell, Miss Alice Scott and Bacon.

Ladies' doubles: Mrs. Bruce and Miss Mary Browne, Miss May Sutton and Miss Alice Scott, Miss Florence Sutton and Miss Golda Myer.

BUNDY SCARES HIM.
EASILY WINS TWO SETS
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

CHICAGO, July 27.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Albert Ludke, the young Hamlet player who defeated C. S. Peters in the semi-finals of the Illinois State tourney, repeated the performance today of the round of the Western at Lake Forest. The match was regarded with much interest by the adherents of both players, for friends of Peters argued that if the former State champion went into the game he would easily put out the German.

L. P. Waldner defeated Olesner, the other German aspirant for the Western tennis honors, but Waldner's victory was an easy one, the Dresden man getting but three games in the two sets.

W. W. Hendricks, the holder with Bundy of the championship of the Pacific Coast in doubles, was also victorious in this round, his victim being J. C. Neely, who was defeated 6-2, 7-5.

Bundy was the first to win his way into the semi-finals by defeating Stuart Canby. Young Canby is but 15 years of age and a member of the Kenwood Club. He had stage fright when he looked through the net at the great Californian and Bundy beat him in two sets.

Two teams won their way into the semi-finals in doubles, Hayes and Peters defeating Belden and Miller and Waldner and Gardner doing the same to Richman and Wington.

ALMOST SCORE FOR PHOENIX.

Entry List Large After the First Announcement.

Eleven Cars Assured for the Long Desert Grind.

This Year's Contest Promises to Be Greatest Ever.

There is a possibility that twenty or more automobiles will enter the Los Angeles-Phoenix race this year. At a meeting in the office of John S. Mitchell at the Hollenbeck yesterday eleven entries were pledged. This is a remarkable showing, considering that the date of the race is so far away.

Leon T. Shettler, owner of the Apperson, which won the Santa Monica road race last year, was one of the first to announce his entry. Others who fell into line were Herbert Brown of the Knox agency, who will enter a car; the local Kieselcar, who are to start a Kieselcar; the Maxwell people, who expect to enter a four-cylinder racer; the Bekins-Williams Company, who have placed on Amplex on the list, a Royal and a Midland; Ralph Hamlin, with a Franklin, and E. Roger Stearns, with a Velle and a Ford.

This is by far the largest entry list for the Phoenix race of any previous year. Interest in the contest was never so keen as it is at present. Another meeting has been called for 1 o'clock Friday afternoon, and at least thirty dealers are expected to be gathered. John Purdy Bullard, secretary of the Mariposa Automobile Club, will attend.

GIVER PROMISES.
Bullard says the people of Phoenix have arranged to give prizes in the cars that compete in the Phoenix race this year. This is the largest bag of gold ever held up for cars in any one race. The Los Angeles-Phoenix winners will divide the $2000 purse among three cars. The first car driver is to get $1200, the driver of the second car $500, and the driver of the third car $300.

In addition to this, $1500 in prizes will be given for the cars competing in the track races on Thursday of fair week. The Phoenix race track is in splendid shape for automobile racing and good time should be made by the desert cars after they have finished the long grind into the Arizona capital.

In addition to the cars which have already been named for the race the following machines are possible starters: The Columbia, Rambler, Buick, Marathon, Winston, Studebaker, E. M. F. Thomas, Parry, Great Western, Durocar, Isotta and National. The owners of these cars have signified their intention of entering the race if matters are to their liking.

In the case of the E. M. F. it is almost certain that the car will be in the race, as Harry Lord, who would drive it on the first leg of the contest, reached home late last night from San Francisco.

Lord has been in the North on a vacation trip. He is after records with the E. M. F. car and this fast machine, which placed in the desert race last year, is almost certain to be heard from in the contest of 1910. The car is speedy and has good staying power. The Lord Motor Car Company may decide to enter the sand battle.

DRASTIC ACTION.
H. O. Smith and Premier Motor Manufacturing Company Reported to Be Suspended by Contest Board.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
NEW YORK, July 27.—The contest board of the American Automobile Association today disqualified H. O. Smith and the Premier Motor Manufacturing Company and declared them ineligible for all contests held under the sanction of the board until further notice.

The notice of the board is a direct reply to the temporary injunction obtained by the company last week in the Brooklyn courts restraining the board from delivering the Glidden trophy to the Chalmers Motor Car Company. The board holds that the Premier company when it entered the Glidden tour, recognized the authority of the board and that its appeal to the courts from the jurisdiction of the board is a distinct breach of the contest rules and is prejudicial to sport.

A referee awarded the Glidden trophy to the Premier car. The Chalmers company protested to the board and the board sustained the protest, reversing the referee.

ALL KINDS OF ACHES.
Boys on Way to California on Roller Skates Have Plenty of Adventures.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)
PATERSON (N. J.) July 27.—Nathan Levin and Max Brodie, two Patererson boys, who started from New York for California on roller skates several weeks ago, have written to their parents from Nebraska, telling of their experiences thus far on their journey. They started without money and up to the time they wrote had visited 108 cities and received letters from that many Mayors.

"But we have had hard luck," Nathan writes. "We have slept on hay stacks and on bare floors. We have been hungry and thirsty; we have had tooth aches, head aches, stomach aches and every other kind of ache, but we intend to be game."

ACROSS THE LINE.
HARPOON FIRST IN YACHT RACE.

YANKEE AND THE MERRY WIDOW TAKE BACK SEAT.

Prettiest Contest Ever Pulled Off in Santa Cruz Bay in Ten-Mile Event Was Witnessed by Thousands. Corrected Times Throws Monsoon Back in Ruck.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)
SANTA CRUZ, July 27.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) With a good breeze blowing this afternoon the prettiest yacht race ever pulled off on this bay attracted the attention of thousands of spectators along the beach.

It was a ten-mile handicap race, and was won by the Harpoon, which beat the Yankee in 37. The Merry Widow won third prize, coming in just behind the Yankee, according to corrected time.

Presto led the first lap, but on the second Yankee pulled away and was the first boat to finish. The Yankee, Presto, Monsoon and Fulton G. crossed the line within two and a half minutes of each other, and made exciting finishes.

Within ten minutes eight of the thirteen yachts had finished. Three beautiful cups were up as trophies.

The corrected time of the yachts is as follows: Harpoon, 1:32:35; Yankee, 1:34:12; Merry Widow, 1:34:20; Presto, 1:36:32; Fulton G., 1:37:11; Alert, 1:38:06; Meteor, 1:39:04; Monsoon, 1:42:53; Starlight, 1:47:09; Queen, 1:48:05; Olga, 1:58:14; Polly, 2:11:06; Marian, 2:20:38.

Swimming and yawl races are on the programme for tomorrow, which will also be visitors' day upon the yachts.

YANKEES WINNERS.
CANADIANS FAR BEHIND.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)
MANCHESTER (Mass.) July 27.—So decisive was the victory of the defender Massachusetts over the challenger St. Lawrence today in the second race for the Sevanhaka cup, that several of the Canadians already have made arrangements to go home after tomorrow's race.

The conditions call for the best three in five. Massachusetts has won two straight. There was a difference of 30 and 28 seconds between the boats at the finish today.

Not only was the St. Lawrence beaten for boat, but the Yankee crew gave the Canadians a lesson in sailing while the defender was in the challenger.

DARK HORSE BARRED.
INDIANAPOLIS (Ind.) July 27.—Jack Johnson, the colored pugilist, was turned down yesterday by the Indianapolis Speedway management when they refused to let him appear on the Speedway at the coming automobile races in his high-powered car. Johnson made application some time ago for a place in the racing programme and his request was refused.

He then asked for the privilege of giving an exhibition race at the September races. The directors of the Speedway took the matter up with the association and President Fisher announced that this request had also been refused.

Leach Cross Beaten.
NEW YORK, July 27.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) Leach Cross was beaten by Battling Hurley, the Paterson whirlwind, in their ten round bout at the Sharkey A. C. tonight. Twice Cross groveled on the floor at the Battler's feet. The first knockdown occurred toward the end of the first round, when Hurley planted a left to the body and another left to the jaw. Again in the second Hurley buried his left fist deep in Leach's stomach and again Leach fopped.

VENTURA. July 27.—Thomas Carlie of Conejo, this county, while out walking Sunday with two friends from Los Angeles, was bitten by rattlesnake, and died two hours later. The two companions were Victor Williams and E. I. Campbell. The three came across the snake, and Carlie asked for some stones with which to kill it. He struck it several times with small rocks, and it stung the rentle. Then he dropped a large rock upon it, and thinking it dead, proceeded to cut off its rattles. As he did so one of his companions noticed signs of life in the snake and told Carlie. He then attempted to stamp the life out of it when it raised its head and struck him on the right leg, just above the ankle.

HEAVY REGISTRATION.

Nearly One Hundred Thousand Voters Entitled to Take Part in Primary Election in This County.

Promptly at midnight last night, the doors of room A in the Courthouse were locked. At that time the registrations of 98,404 voters had been received. Of these, 32,523 are from the outside districts and 64,281 are from the city.

The registrations yesterday totaled 1208. Of these, 641 were from the city and 567 were from the country districts.

Deputy County Clerk Brown last night declined to hazard a guess as to what the final figures will be. Yesterday a number of deputies were sent out into the suburban districts to register voters and these will not report until today. Those at headquarters are not in touch with them and have no idea what progress they are making. They have explicit instructions to have their papers in by midnight tonight, however.

Registration, as far as the primaries are concerned, closed at midnight. Those who failed to affix their names to the registration blanks prior to that

THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 28, 1910.

On All News Stands, 5 CENTS.

DEATH KNIFE FOUND IS IMPORTANT LINK.

Rusty Blood-Stained Blade Discovered by Woman. Near Scene of Alleged Murder of Shiveley May Lead to Conviction of Slayer.

A STRONG, sharp-edged broad knife, with dark stains on its scalloped blade, has just been brought to light from a covering of dust and weeds within a few feet of the place where Morgan Shiveley received fatal stab wounds at San Gabriel early the morning of January 2.

The discovery is considered important as no weapon which might have been used in committing the crime had previously been found. While officers felt certain that he did not receive the mortal injuries by jumping through a window pane, as was pointed out by those implicated in the case, they were unable to disprove the theory.

The wicked looking weapon will be given to Dist. Atty. Fredericks today. He will probably turn it over to Chief Detective Browne, who has recently investigated the affair. It may throw a new light on this tragedy, which has been a mystery to skilled officers and citizens alike for many months.

This knife is now all that stands between Mr. and Mrs. George A. Stone, who have given $10,000 bail, each, to insure their appearance for trial on a charge of having murdered Shiveley, and liberty.

IMPORTANT LINK.

They were on the eve of being given their freedom, when the instrument was unearthed. The officials had about concluded that the mass of circumstantial evidence was too incomplete to warrant bringing the couple to trial.

The discovery was made by Mrs. A. Roberts, who now occupies the small house in which the Stones and Shiveley, who was a Pacific Electric conductor, lived until the death of the latter.

She was cleaning up her yard when she found the knife. It was lightly covered with dirt and weeds in front of a small shed near the residence.

The instrument was lying almost in

A RECORD.

HIRAM JOHNSON'S SERVICES TO THE RAILROAD AND SPRECKELS.

Why He Abandoned the Support of the S. P. Ring and Became a Cog of the New Machine.

HIRAM JOHNSON'S friends say it is unjust to bring up the past, that Johnson should be judged by "what he stands for now." But it is only by his past, that the real Johnson, who poses as a reformer, can be understood.

There are three of the Johnsons, Grove L. and his two sons, Hiram and Albert. The latter now dead, was a brilliant man, but rather a dreamer and inclined to be extremely radical in politics. Hiram has played both ends of the game, the one typified by Albert and the one so strongly exemplified by the old man.

No politician in California is more thoroughly identified with the corporation influence in politics than Grove L. Johnson. As his opponent for the nomination in the Seventeenth District puts it: "The district has been unrepresented. The corporations have been represented." In the Legislature, where Grove L. Johnson has served many years, he has been recognized always as a railroad and corporation leader.

Grove L. Johnson has been in the Legislature about eighteen years. In 1894 he went to Congress, serving one term, and then went back to the Legislature. His district is largely made up of employees of the Southern Pacific shops.

Hiram Johnson first began denouncing the Southern Pacific Railroad in 1896. He denounced it because it did not spend more money in his father's campaign for re-election to Congress. That campaign will always stand as the record in this State for the use of money to control an election. Hiram was his father's campaign manager, a compliant servant of the S. P. ring.

When it was over, and Marion De Vries was found to have won, largely because of popular revolt against the Johnson-Southern Pacific methods, Hiram Johnson declared bitterly that it was all the fault of the railroad, that if the S. P. had given out $20,000 more, he could have pulled Grove L. through.

Hiram Johnson was not a callow youth at that time. He was the corporation counsel of the city of Sacramento, under Mayor C. H. Hubbard.

That was the time when the Southern Pacific spent enormous sums of money in politics in this State. Some time afterwards, the road's policy was changed, and newspapers like the Fresno Republican, the San Francisco Bulletin and the Sacramento Bee, now so rabidly anti-railroad, and so noisy as reformers, switched to the other side. And Hiram Johnson later found that there was more in it for him to fight the railroad. But not right away.

Hiram Johnson has never been bothered by consideration of party fealty. His first political job was as the member of the A. P. A. city administration in Sacramento. Then, after his father's defeat for renomination to Congress, he became the corporation counsel for the regular machine-made Republican Mayor of Sacramento, George Clark, who has since been identified with the unsavory "bull pen." The machine turned Clark down at the end of his term, and he ran independently, supported by Hiram Johnson, and was elected.

It was an axiom at that time, that the way to obtain recognition from the State machine was to fight it and compel it to come to terms. In the State campaign of 1902, Hiram Johnson, encouraged by Clark's independent victory, conceived the idea of making himself a power in State politics, using Clark, who was then at the height of his popularity, as a breakhead. It was a warm campaign, just like the present one. Hiram put up exactly the kind of talk he is making now. And the Johnson-Clark aggregation failed to carry a single precinct. Hiram resigned his job with the administration and went to San Francisco. Did Hiram Johnson go on the stump and talk against the railroad? Did he talk for "clean government"? Did he advocate the election of Pardee and "kicking Herrin out of politics"? Not at all. Not a word would he say. It is understood that he vented his spite against an ungrateful party by voting for Lane (Dem.) He supported Bell against Gillett four years ago. He was for Maguire against Gage, and in local affairs in San Francisco, where he has since resided, he has been a Republican at the primaries and a Democrat at the election. He has not been a real Republican for a dozen years.

He was simply a "has been" and a sore head until Rudolph Spreckels took him up as an assistant to Henery. Spreckels paid him $11,000 for that, as testified to under oath, and it is understood that it is Spreckels who is putting up the most of the money for him now.

Grove L. Johnson, "foxy old Grove," as he is called, is accused of secretly aiding Hiram in this fight. The stories about their antagonism are put out for buncombe. They have had several conferences since the campaign began. They are much alike in their traits. Both are very "practical" politicians. Hiram has found it more profitable to do business with liberally inclined millionaires like Spreckels.

Hiram comes high. He came high when Spreckels wanted him. And he came high when the notorious Dr. Burke wanted him. He was the attorney for Dalzell Brown, the bank wrecker, while still serving the State (at Spreckels's expense). Brown, who had stolen a million, ruined thousands, and drove poor depositors to suicide, proved very fortunate in his selection of an attorney. A year in jail was the very inadequate penalty to which the State agreed at the time Johnson was supposed to be or to have been a deputy District Attorney, under Henery and Spreckels, and Brown's attorney. If Johnson is to be judged by his services in the graft prosecution—for which he was paid—he should be judged by his services to Dalzell Brown.

So far as his record is concerned, Hiram Johnson's claims to the support of the so-called "reform" element are founded upon his services to the graft prosecution in San Francisco—for which he was paid a large sum of money—his indecent attack upon President Taft, and his habit of bolting the ticket in his own district.

HIS FIANCEE AN HEIRESS.

Wyatt Leaves Most of Estate to Former Secretary, Miss Crossley.

Under the will of H. C. Wyatt, to be read this morning at the Burlington-avenue residence by his attorney, Arthur Crutcher, the major portion of the $250,000 estate will pass into the hands of Miss Elsie R. Crossley, the theatrical manager's former secretary, and latterly his fiancée. It is understood they had contemplated marriage and a long European bridal tour this fall. The other principal beneficiary is William T. Wyatt, the son. The Mason Opera-house will be managed by the Wyatt Estate, represented by the son, but controlled by Miss Crossley, with a two-thirds interest. W. E. Dunn will be executor of the estate.

It appears that Mrs. Wyatt, from whom the late manager had not been quite separated by divorce proceedings, had, in view of certain concessions, signed away all claim to the estate, these releases being in the possession of Wyatt's attorney.

Portrait of a man, likely related to the Wyatt estate story.

AUTOS TO RACE ACROSS DESERT.

GOLDFIELD TO LOS ANGELES EVENT IS UNIQUE.

Delegates to Mining Congress Here in October Will Speed Over Difficult Roads for Trophy Offered by Sierra Madre Club—Many Are Anxious to Make Entries.

An automobile race from Goldfield to Los Angeles over deserts and mountain roads, the machines carrying full passenger lists of delegates to the American Mining Congress, will be run as a feature of the convention in October. It will be the most unique automobile race in many respects ever held. Typical of western life, it will be practically without other conditions than that the entries start from Goldfield at a given time and finish at the hall in which the sessions of the mining congress are held in Los Angeles. A choice of routes will be given the contestants. The machines must all carry passengers who are delegates or visitors to the congress. The drivers will be allowed to figure out their own stops and their own methods of making the distance in the best possible time.

The idea appealed to the Goldfield men who are coming to Los Angeles. Nothing less than a special train would have done for them had the automobile race been overlooked, and a special train would have no merit of originality or pretension. The idea of racing across the desert, just as the gold men stampered to new fields during the height of excitement, was the proper caper.

The Sierra Madre Club, which is acting as host to the mining congress, has taken up the race and will give official cognizance to it by offering a silver cup to the first of the contestants.

shot into the Baptist convention at Long Beach. Dr. William Geistweitz, guest of honor and principal speaker of the twelve-day programme, has justified a national reputation as an orator, though hardly in the way consecrated and stereotyped by schools of elocution. That, however, begins to dawn upon you only after he has finished. You are too largely taken up with the novelty of what he says, and the greater novelty of the way he says it, to spare time for technical criticism while he is speaking.

Applause is an unusual happening in church services, but it has ceased to be so in the First Baptist Church of Long Beach. There is something in the straight hard-hitting of the militant visitor that carries his audience with him. There is no strained effort for effect. There is no "fine language" nor rounded rhetorical periods. He calls spades "spades," and there is no roundaboutness in his doing so. The plainest of plain English suffices for Dr. Geistweitz and it bends itself with astonishing precision to his purpose. One moment his words leap out with the cutting accuracy of a rawhide lash; the next, they soothe and caress the wound.

Dr. Geistweitz's talks are sermons, one feels the need of revising the common interpretation of the word. His sentences are short, his words are blacksmith, his speech is a shower of bullets. He has more than a little of the Rooseveltian directness to the point; one feels that here is a disciple of the square deal, a worthy wielder of the Big Stick.

CULTS AND CULTS.

"Faith," he cried, "what is faith? Do you think it is a cardinal count in salvation to believe blindly and without reason? Do you object to straight talk? Times are different now from those of twenty years ago—it's more difficult to convert men than it used to be. Does that argue an increase of atheism? Ask rather if it be possible for the exponents of a two-by-four theology to handle the things that a real faith should mean. There is no scriptural injunction against doubt. It is natural to question—it's a healthy symptom. Doubt is born of question, but there should be no question that a real religion cannot answer.

"Where are we getting—we and our modern trend of thought? There are cults and cults, without end or sparing. Would you have psychology? The magazines are full of the New Thought—the Ladies Home Journal is full of it—the newspapers are full of it—but does it make for faith? What has Christian Science—or rather Eddyism, for it is neither Christian nor scientific—to offer? Nothing—Eddyism is the doctrine of nothingness; in its last analysis, it's a cipher with the rim rubbed off. It denies for us, and

THE PUBLIC SERVICE--In the Courts and Offices.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Electric lighting companies are preparing to charge the 7-cent rate instead of the 5-cent rate fixed by the Council, and are believed to be courting a legal contest of the rate-fixing power of the Council.

George W. Swope, of the City Engineer's office, told Judge Cole yesterday, how his wife had left him because he did not favor the marriage of their daughter, Inez, to Walter Wallace, when they lived at Glendale.

Judge Conroy will this morning decide the action brought by Hugh Blue, as trustee, against the All Night and Day Bank to compel the transfer of 1135 shares of stock on the books of that institution.

D. P. Durbin, the Vernon hog raiser, appeared in the police court yesterday as the champion of the numerous men arrested for hauling garbage, in violation of Alexander's permit, and announced that he will attack the garbage ordinance in the Superior Court.

Owing to the fact that Miss May Agnes Dillingham, who was shot by George C. Luttweller, has not yet recovered sufficiently to attend the court, the hearing of Luttweller, charged with wife-murder, was continued yesterday to August 2.

AT THE CITY HALL.

LEGAL WAR ON LIGHT RATES.

COMPANIES TO DEFY ORDINANCE AND COURT ARREST.

City Attorney Says His Office Will Promptly Institute Prosecutions and the Rate-Fixing Power of the Council Will Be Brought to a Hearing in the Courts.

Having failed to make their referendum against the 7-cent light rate stick the retailers of electric current in Los Angeles are to invite prosecution in police court by ignoring the ordinance and attempting to collect the old rate of 5 cents. This is the admission of representatives of one of the companies yesterday.

If this course is followed it will mean war—legal war—for City Attorney H. W. Hitt said when apprised of the plan: "Whenever any agent or collector of any electric light company attempts to collect a bill at a higher rate than the 7-cent rate fixed by the ordinance my office will be at the disposal of the consumer to institute a prosecution. The ordinance provides a penalty for charging a higher rate than 7 cents and there will be no hesitancy in issuing a complaint where there is evidence to convict."

The City Attorney does not disguise his belief that the defiance of the ordinance is to be attempted in order to test the validity of the rate fixing before a court. No more direct way of getting a decision is possible than the arrest and trial of a collector for any company. His conviction would force the company employing him to appeal through habeas corpus proceedings to the Superior Court and his acquittal would give the city an opportunity to appeal on questions of law to the Superior Court, also.

When the City Attorney ruled out the big referendum petition, he told the lighting companies on the ground that it was only supplementary to the petition filed by the Municipal League it was found that mandamus suit to test the decision would not go to the merits of the rate fixing question. Ever since then the City Attorney's office has been waiting for developments that would show the tactics of the lighting companies and it is believed the attempts to collect a 5-cent rate is the first.

The new rate went into effect on the 1st inst., and bills will be sent out next week by all the companies. That is the reason the City Attorney's office is getting ready to hear complaints of consumers and issue subpoenas on which the collectors or officers of the companies may be prosecuted.

The City Attorney's office is also investigating complaints about the irregular charges for telephones, but as yet has not issued any subpoenas.

NEW BOOZE LAW.

IN EFFECT TOMORROW.

The new liquor ordinance will not be in effect today as it was too big a job for the printer and proof reader for publication in the official paper, the Los Angeles Journal, this morning. It will be published tomorrow morning and will be in effect at once.

Because it goes into effect immediately police officials are concerned to get copies of it for study. Its great bulk and fine detail will require at least two weeks for the police to learn it and the poor liquor dealers confess that the magnitude of the law appals them.

It does not reduce the sale or use of liquor one whit, but provides an entirely new system of selling it with a more profitable basis of license fees. As no copies have been printed, it will know where the measure is until it is published and in effect. Still there is no disposition to enforce it precipitately.

HASKINS' GIFT.

NOT A LEMON, EITHER.

A few gifts, not the usual lemon, were distributed by the Council acting as a Board of Equalization yesterday. The prize was given to S. M. Haskins, who represented the Pacific Electric Corporation and disputed Assessor Mallard's valuation of the stock of the company at $5,000,000. This was supposed to be half its actual value but Haskins showed that while twenty millions of stock is authorized only half the amount is sold. Mallard admitted that this is correct but he had been misled by an erroneous statement of the company's auditor. As a result the Council fixed the stock assessment at $2,500,000, which is just half the amount Mallard made it.

The Home Savings Bank got the next best gift and it was a reduction of $34,000 due to erroneous assessment on cash on hand and solvent credits.

The Los Angeles and Redondo is to receive a reduction of all its franchise valuation north of Jefferson street from its franchise to do. "This will amount to about $60,000 but it will be no benefit as the Council ordered it reassessed to the franchisee to be."

worst of it in consolidation," said he. The Council however insisted on making the reduction.

H. J. Goudge, attorney for the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation, asked the board to permit him to prove by experts, by the assessors own figures, by the Board of Public Utilities or any other competent person, that the assessment of the stock of the corporation at a valuation of 150 was erroneous. Last year the company had 40,000 shares outstanding, which were assessed at 150. This year the stock is 72,500 shares but represents practically the same capitalization and Goudge said it did not possess the same value as the lesser number of shares.

After a ten-minute speech, Goudge got his answer in a motion by Belkouski that the board proceed to other business. He appealed to President Andrews, who smiled blandly and said, "Let's see what else we have." When the session adjourned Goudge still had no answer.

The board expects to complete its work today though it may continue in session until Saturday noon.

"SQUATTER" RENTS.

CLERK REFUSES 'EM.

The "squatter" colony of Terminal Island, formerly East San Pedro, and now Los Angeles, must have looked at consolidation doubtfully a year ago for just before the election 103 members of the colony got land leases from the San Pedro Trustees. These leases are for fifty years and the rental fee is $1 a year.

Yesterday W. D. Hippel, president of the "squatters" association, called at the City Clerk's office with D. A. Gardner, an attorney, and demanded that Clerk Hippel in payment of rentals on 103 parcels of land. Under the advice of the City Attorney the Clerk declined to accept the demand but gave an acknowledgment that it had been made.

Hippel explained that many of the "squatters" had occupied their land for twenty years. Much of the time they had only government permits. Then San Pedro and Long Beach attempted annexation and while the "land" was under Long Beach it gave the "squatters" leases. But the courts upset this annexation and the "squatters" became citizens of San Pedro.

"We were promised a square of land if we came into Los Angeles," said Hippel, "and we want to get it."

The City Attorney has been investigating the validity of the leases issued almost at the last minute to the "squatters" by the San Pedro Trustees and does not intend to complicate matters by accepting further claims. It is believed, however, that he will hold the leases valid.

MAKES CONCESSIONS.

TRACTION DEVELOPMENTS.

According to announcement of Lissner's Board of Public Utilities the Huntington traction interests have agreed to ask for all franchises in the name of the companies intending to use them in the future, and to undertake a joint campaign of creation of condition of cars at morning noon and night rushes. The board reports H. E. Huntington as showing a disposition generally to meet the suggestions of the board, and that the Huntington lines are the following:

Five-cent fares on the Redondo line as far as Manchester avenue, not later than January 1.

Fifteen-cent fares between San Pedro and Wilmington, possibly between any point in the two places.

Application for a belt line franchise on the following streets: Alvarado street, from Redondo to Hoover, then on Hoover to Twenty-fifth street, connecting with its University car line; also from Thirty-second and Hoover on Kingsley to Jefferson, and on Jefferson to Wesley, connecting with its Main-street car line; also on Jefferson street from Main street to Central avenue, and probably on Vernon avenue from Central avenue to Santa Fe avenue.

Extensions reasonably needed in inhabited parts of the city will be made without charge by the company.

Freight carrying franchises are to be applied for after conferences between the City Attorney and the attorneys for the railroads.

Main street congestion may be relieved by another outlet for the San Gabriel Valley lines, but Mr. Huntington would not consent to accept any of a franchise which the city might take over at any time. He will, however, consider a franchise permitting the city to have joint use of the tracks.

The board also reports that it has asked the Los Angeles Pacific lines to grant five-cent fares in the city limits on the sixteenth street and Hollywood lines, but has not received an answer.

AQUEDUCT DEAL.

BOND SALE COMPLETED.

The Council closed the new aqueduct financial deal yesterday when it adopted the report of the Finance Committee and a resolution ordering the sale and delivery in New York of $500,000 of bonds each to the New York and Metropolitan Life Insurance Companies and $500,000 to the bond syndicate.

By its action the Council annulled its order to the syndicate that it demand the payment of $314,000 due August 1, and declares that the option exercised by the syndicate on the 1910 series of bonds is null and void. The resolution is efficient only if the three concerns take and pay for the bonds, and if they do not then the whole deal, ipso facto, is off.

Treasurer Haze is to leave today with the bonds, the Council having appropriated $500 for his trip yesterday. The bond amount with the amounts from other sources aggregating $2,300,000 will finance the work until February 1, when the next option is to be exercised or rejected, at a rate of $250,000 a month.

The Finance Committee's report set out in full all its negotiations with the insurance companies and the syndicate.

Railway between Jefferson street and Second street, the City Attorney will advise the Council today that he regards suit to eject the company from the streets proper necessary. But he also says he believes the Council should consider the company's proposal as a matter of policy before the suit is instituted, and therefore suggests that a date for a hearing be fixed.

Ladini's "Joke."

When P. A. Ladini recently petitioned the Council for the vacation of Main street from Sixth to Seventh and Sixth street, from Main to Spring, the Council did not realize his irony. Yesterday, not having heard of action on his request, he violated the golden rule of humorists by explaining his joke. What he wants is the intervention of the city in preventing the traction companies from using the streets named. He also complained of the use of Second street by the Redondo Railroad and Hill street by the Los Angeles-Pacific Railroad.

Harbor Ferries.

Mayor Alexander remained "on the job" long enough yesterday to approve the final acquisition of the Harbor Ferries and to send a message to the Council urging it to provide a municipal ferry between Wilmington and Terminal Island and San Pedro, and between the two islands, even though they cost $500,000, without delay.

Against Girder-Rail Ordinances.

A referendum petition against the girder-rail ordinance, bearing 5500 signatures, was filed yesterday by Attorney Haskins on behalf of the Los Angeles Railway Company. The clerk will probably begin verification of the signatures today.

Want More Pay.

Civil service extra clerks who work about eight months in the year in the office of the Clerk, Assessor and Tax Collector, for $90 a month, have asked the Council to increase the amount to $100. They say the cost of living demands the increase.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

STRANGE CASE OF SEPARATION.

DAUGHTER WINS HUSBAND, HER FATHER A DIVORCE.

Family Splits Over Love Affairs of Miss Swope, Whose Mother Favors Suitor and Carries Her Away, Along With Furniture, from Objecting Husband and Papa.

George W. Swope, an employee in the office of the City Engineer, was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from Mattie Swope, by Judge Cole yesterday, on the ground of desertion.

There were several interesting features in connection with the case, of which was the fact that of the half-dozen witnesses who testified, barring the plaintiff himself, not a single one knew what had caused the separation. They knew that Swope had maintained a fine home in Glendale, and that in July, 1908, Mrs. Swope had left the home, in company with their daughter, Inez, but they knew absolutely nothing about the cause of the trouble.

It was evident that Mrs. Swope was a woman who kept her own counsel, and not even her closest neighbors and friends had any information along the line indicated. She simply took the furniture from the home, leaving the husband a cot to sleep upon, a stove, a table, a chair, a bathtub, a plate, cup and saucer, and sugar-bowl, and departed leaving no sign, except a note telling Swope that she had borne the child, that the child was named Inez, and that it was upon this rock that the domestic happiness of the couple split. Mrs. Swope wanted Inez to marry Walter and come to live with them; the father opposed both proposals, and according to the evidence of the plaintiff, this was the only point of serious difference that had arisen between them in all of the years of their married life.

Swope had lived up a fine home in Glendale furnishing the daughter with a fine piano, and it was the evidence of all the witnesses who knew about the Swope family, that the father had furnished the daughter with everything that the salary of Swope would secure.

He gave his wife everything he earned, Swope said in his testimony. After the disappearance of Mrs. Swope she was located in San Diego, and during the month of October following her leaving home, the plaintiff husband was a delegate to the State convention of the Foresters in that city, he visited his wife and asked her to return to him. She refused, Swope testified, and she told the mother and daughter living together. He was asked if his daughter had succeeded in marrying the man of her choice, but Swope had no information on that point. It was learned from Swope's attorney, that she had.

PARTIAL DISTRIBUTION.

CARRIE M. JONES ESTATE.

The petition of Charles W. Welterhall, a chauffeur who was in the employ of Carrie M. Jones at the time of her death and who is a beneficiary under her will to the extent of the two autos owned by Mrs. Jones at the time of her demise, for a partial distribution of the estate was disproved of by Judge Rives yesterday.

Under the terms of the will, the petitioner was not only given the machines, but Yung, the Chinese servant, was interested to the extent of $1000 cash. Both were covered by the petition, as well as the following bequests made in favor of personal friends: Mrs. Henry Kremer, crescent diamond pin; Mrs. Augustus Hubbard, diamond pin and one large opal ring; Mrs. Mary Hall, a three-stone diamond ring; Edith Green, necklace; Daisy Singsbaugh, two-stone diamond ring; Mrs. Harry Hubbard, small opal ring; Mrs. Carrie Carter, pearl ring; Mrs. Charles L. Leslie, sunburst diamond ring; Fred Barnes, diamond bracelet; Mrs. Watson Hubbard, Japanese table and two large blue vases. The partial distribution was allowed.

The executor of the estate is the Southern Trust Company, and according to the allegations of the petitioner, that institution now has on hand about $20,000 belonging to Mrs. Jones died without any debts beyond a few current running expenses.

BANK STOCK CASE.

TO BE DECIDED TODAY.

After hearing some testimony and a good deal of argument on the part of the defendants, yesterday, Judge Conroy decided that he would give his opinion in the action brought by Hugh Blue, trustee, against the All Night and Day Bank, to compel that institution to issue to him a blanket certificate covering 1135 shares of the bank, this morning.

The contention on the part of the bank was that an action for mandamus was not the proper remedy in the case; that the defendant had filed an interpleader; that the bank had filed an action against Newton J. Skinner, president, and W. J. Conner, secretary, to determine the ownership of the stock that had been pledged to L. C. Brand, of the Guarantee Title Insurance and Trust Company, the Pasadena, Crown City and Colton National Banks, to secure a loan of $40,000. It was also alleged that Skinner and Conner had served notice on the bank not to make the transfer demanded by Blue. In a word, the contention was that in addition to the alleged irregularity of the sale of the stock to Brand, under the agreement contained in the note given for the loans, that the proper method was to first arrive at the real ownership of the stock, with the understanding that whoever was decreed such owner, should pay the indebtedness.

Judge Pope, on the part of the plaintiff, stated that the argument of the other side were to escape the payment of an honest debt; that there was no dispute as to the money being due or that the security had been disposed of upon default of payment, in the regular order, and in his opinion the litigation by the officials of the defendant, the judgment in favor of the plaintiff would be allowed without any further contest.

And thereby hangs a tale of dice throwing indulged in by young Magee, who is a son of a well-known San Francisco family, and a high roller in "bone" society. The action against the bank was brought by Brannon, to whom a note for $350, given by Magee to Sig Cohen of San Francisco, was assigned for collection. The note was dated June 1, 1908, and Magee put up the defense that the money had been lost throwing dice with Cohen, and being a gambling debt, uncollectible. An effort was made to attach money belonging to Magee in the custody of the Southern Trust Company. But the latter motion failed, for the bank had deposited there to his credit by E. E. Hewlett of San Francisco, May 27, 1908, a sum of $350, which was to be paid to Magee at the rate of $1 a day until used up.

Negotiations were then opened for a rolling about the proper stipulation shows that Magee has concluded to pay the debt, even if it was lost trying to win at dice.

postponement of the infliction of sentence.

UNFORTUNATE MAN. A jury in Judge Willis's court yesterday heard the evidence in the insanity case of young Hoyt Brown, who is resting under the charge of burglary. There has been some doubts of the young man's mental equilibrium for some time, and the court desired the matter submitted to a jury. The record shows that Brown had been in prison, or some reformatory institution, almost constantly since he was 16 years of age, and he is now 23. It also transpired that no sooner has he been released from one term of imprisonment than he commits another offense. His mother testified that the boy was tormented when but a child, and that he has not been right since.

CHARGE DISMISSED. The complaint of grand larceny lodged against J. Horach was dismissed in Judge Willis's court yesterday, there not being sufficient evidence to warrant the prosecution of the case.

DAMAGE ACTION. Judge Houser yesterday heard the action brought by R. A. Burris against A. B. Grider, for the recovery of $2500, alleged to be due on account of injuries received in an accident on Pico street January 10 last. Burris was riding a motorcycle, and his machine was run into by the defendant, who was driving an auto. Negligence is charged.

NOTICE TO ATTORNEYS. Tomorrow the calendar in Judge Rives's court will be called for the last time until the court returns from its vacation. Judge Rives will take his trusty rifle and go after a few deer before they are all gone.

BOTH WANT DAUGHTER. A contest between a divorced father and mother over the custody of their child, Katie Emily Spencer, 11 years old, is booked for Judge Willis's department, August 1. In the divorce action the father, Henry Spencer, was awarded the child, and the mother, Ruth J. Spencer, was allowed to visit her. It is now alleged that upon one occasion the mother took the child away, and has refused to return her to the father. Spencer has started habeas-corpus proceedings.

ASBURY AGAIN. J. Philip Asbury, aged 15, who some time ago was sent to the George Junior Republic on probation, after he had pleaded guilty of disposing of a bad check for $150, in the purchase of an automobile, will face Judge Wilbur for violation of his parole tomorrow. After the boy was sent to the Republic he tried his game of buying an automobile with no money in the bank to meet the check, and it is for this that he has been again haled into court.

SEEK TO MORTGAGE. A petition was filed in the Superior Court yesterday by the South Main Christian Church for permission to mortgage its premises, located in the Woodlawn tract, for $5000. The Second Church of the United Brethren in Christ filed a similar petition, seeking to mortgage property in the South Woodlawn addition for $5000.

PROPOSED CHANGE OF NAME. The Bank of Dolgeville desires to change its corporate name to the "Citizens' Bank of Alhambra," and a petition that effect was filed in the Superior Court yesterday.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday by the Western Avenue Company, capital stock $100,000, incorporators W. F. Throppe, M. G. Fogg and R. D. Middleton, all residing at 2300 S. Fortale High Chair Company, capital stock $25,000, incorporators W. F. Cornett, L. W. Walker, Isaac R. Landis, H. O. Tidman and S. F. Macfarlane, subscribed $5; Hamilton Motor Company, capital stock $50,000, incorporators N. W. Hamilton, Edward J. Fyle, A. A. Williams and Alice G. Hamilton and E. W. Leslie, subscribed $500.

GUARDIANSHIP ASKED. A petition was filed in the Superior Court yesterday by Sophia C. Luitwiler, for her appointment as guardian of Samuel Henry Luitwiler, son of George C. Luitwiler and Estelle Luitwiler. It will be recalled that the husband shot and killed the mother of the child about ten days ago, and that he is now in the County Jail awaiting judicial action in his case. The petitioner is the grandmother of the child.

THE POLITICAL WATCHTOWER

An Express and other papers of the same stamp have been trying to make political capital by attacking the records of some of the members of the Southern California delegation in the last Legislature.

I remember that on the return of these legislators that a public banquet was given them by the citizens of Los Angeles. It was the first time in my memory that such a thing has occurred. Generally the citizens have a store of over-ripe eggs for their returning legislators.

Walter Leeds, who has been assailed as one of the unruly legislators who would not take machine programs from Boss Lissner, remarked yesterday that he is willing to answer to his constituents for all his votes.

He throws some light upon the Senate joint resolution in regard to a Federal steamship line on this side of the continent. He says it was proposed by Senator Sanford, and was planned as a trap for the Republican members. It contained references to the Bristol report, which made bitter and false charges against Senators Flint and Perkins.

Its apparent purpose was to recommend to Congress the establishment of a Federal steamship line between Panama and California in competition with the Harriman-owned line.

The Assembly favored that purpose, but it struck out the demagogic praise of Bristol, inserted a reference to the bill for building of a such line introduced by Flint, adopted the resolution and sent it back to the Senate where the sleeping Republicans allowed the vigilante Sanford to cause the Senate to reject the amendments.

The Assembly stood its ground and the resolution was finally passed by both houses, minus the Democratic strings. Nearly all the Los Angeles members stood by the Republican amendments.

Another false accusation of the Goo-Goos that the regulars blocked a bill for the alleged purification of the ballot, is explained by Leeds. In regard to the bill for having the names of the judiciary placed in a separate column, Leeds makes clear the real situation.

In 1902, Judges Shaw and Angellotti were elected to the Supreme bench. Shaw received many votes less than Angellotti, not because of any unpopularity for he was then as now one of the best jurists in the State. The voters in many cases only voted for one candidate.

The following year, P. A. Stanton, chairman of the Election Law Committee in the Assembly, reported a bill which became a law that year. It provided for putting the party circle on the ballot. Since then there has been no recurrence of what was nearly a misfortune for Judge Shaw.

The Democrats at the last session voted to strike out the circle, knowing that it had probably kept them out of many an office. There were plenty of reformers of the Earl-Lissner brand to help the Democrats.

The so-called non-partisan judiciary bill was the worst of all. It requires a candidate for the bench to go into the turmoil and strife of a primary fight. And after his nomination the Republicans must give up the advantage of his party prestige and have his name appear in a column with Democrats, Socialists and all the rest. The Link-Roosters supported this bill to a man.

The Judiciary of this country for a generation have been with one exception—Republican and nominees of a Republican convention. No county in this land can show better judges and I can see no good reason for the new method of obliging the judges to plunge into politics.

3 DAYS MORE AND THE BOOKS CLOSE

This is a time of far greater significance to you as an investor than it is to "HOME BUILDERS" as the object of your investment.

To get on the books as a stockholder before Saturday Night at 9 o'clock, when this office closes, you will draw the 4 per cent. dividend which will be declared with the close of the month.

"HOME BUILDERS" ends its tenth quarter with the ending of the month. It has been one of unusual prosperity and it invites you to share in this prosperity. For you to pass this opportunity will really be unfortunate, if you prize good earnings with ample security, when you make an investment.

Are You Reading the Fine Summer Numbers of THE CENTURY MAGAZINE

THEY WILL keep you entertained with the blithest, most cheerful reading—pages and pages of it,—and just suited to the season—more first class stories, more light entertaining articles, brighter pictures in color, more out-of-door sports. Each number is delightful.

THE AUGUST MIDSUMMER HOLIDAY NUMBER CONTAINS

- The beginning of a new novelette by EDITH WHARTON.
- A beautiful painting in full color by MAX-FIELD PARRISH for a fine poem, "SEVEN GREEN POOLS AT CENTRA."
- "THE MUNICIPAL CHURCH" by WASHINGTON GLADDEN, an article with meat in it—something to make every one think.
- SHAKSPERE—Remarkable discoveries of new facts about his business ventures and profits, with reproductions of old engravings. By Professor Charles William Wallace.
- The lovely GARDEN OF MISS OECILIA BEAUX described by Hildegard Hawthorne, with many pictures of the beautiful vistas.
- New chapters of "THE CREATORS," a novel by MAY SINCLAIR.
- "LAWN-TENNIS" by WALTER CAMP, the great authority on athletics. Illustrated.
- "JERUSALEM" Wonderfully vivid description by ROBERT HICHENS, with beautiful paintings in full color by JULES GUERIN.
- "WITH JOHN O'BIRDS & JOHN O'MOUNTAINS IN THE SOUTHWEST." Do you know these two men? They are JOHN BURROUGHS and JOHN MUIR—a fascinating pair.
- STUDYING EARTHQUAKES—the work of the Japanese Earthquake Committee.
- THE AMERICAN GIPSY. A revelation to those who do not know the true gipsy character.
- NIENRIETTA ON ROLLERS, the exciting tale of a wedding that revolved on wheels.
- MACBURNIE AND THE CHEESE. Macburnie's Scotch argument that "the cheese was no' shipped" will delight the reader more than it did the officials of the G. & T.
- THE TRIUMPH OF GODIBET. A capital "Beaux-Arts" story by GEORGE S. CHAPPELL.
- MRS. NORTHMER'S TREASURE. A story that will hold you till you have finished.
- "CANNED CLASSICS" by HARRY GRAHAM. The humorous, rollicking lines of this poet and satirist need no introduction.

last day to register. For weeks the Link-Roosters have been urging citizens to register as Republicans, irrespective of their party affiliations. As a result Socialists, Union Laborites and others have deliberately perjured themselves in order to obey the mandate of the Lissner machine.

When the last compilation of figures was made at the registration office, the books showed that 35,496 had registered up to Monday night last. Since then the rate of registration has fallen off, but it was estimated late last night that there are over 100,000 registrations.

Johnson's supporters are continuing their abuse of the other gubernatorial candidates for Governor, but assert that Stanton—by far the strongest candidate—would be the worst possible choice. I hear from a very reliable source in San Francisco that Johnson's campaign has proved a failure in that city. He is expected to get his father to speak for him during the next two weeks. It will make an effective combination.

In the meantime, Stanton is growing in strength. He will receive the practically unlimited support of Southern California, save for a few disgruntled Lissnerites who plan to turn the State over to Theodore Bell, the Democrat, at the general election.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

PREPARATIONS for the golf tournament, to be held at the Potter Country Club next month, are nearing completion. Every afternoon a party of pretty girls and sprightly young men may be seen practicing on the links. Among the enthusiasts recently was Marion Newhall, whose golf is always dainty. Others were Miss Julia Langhorne and Miss McManis, Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Weston, Mrs. Henry Clarence Bredon, Miss McLaughlin, Templeton Crocker, Jordan Trevis, Rev. D. M. Crabtree and Knox Maddox.

Dillon at Home.
Dr. and Mrs. Edward Dillon, Richard and Miss Mollie Dillon, together with Mr. and Mrs. John Grant have returned from an outing at Santa Barbara.

San Diego.
Miss Margaret Hale of West Thirty-fourth street, and her sister, are guests of relatives in San Diego.

At St. Francis.
Dr. James A. B. Scherer is a guest at the St. Francis, San Francisco.

Home from Yellowstone.
Mr. and Mrs. W. U. Sibbald of the fields apartments have returned from a tour of the Yellowstone Park.

At Vancouver.
Mrs. Edgar G. Dulin and Miss Ethelyn Dulin of No. 181 Commonwealth avenue left last evening for a six weeks' trip to Vancouver, B. C.

Return to Seattle.
George W. H. White of Seattle, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. William Henry Akin of Calhouna boulevard, left last evening for his home. The many friends of Mr. White will be pleased to know that he will probably return within a month to make his city his future home.

At Ocean Park.
Mrs. Lafayette Isaman of Pasadena, author of "Tourist Tales of California," and her husband, who have been enjoying a month's outing at Long Beach, are now at Ocean Park for a month.

Go North.
Mrs. James Henry Ballagh of Fifth avenue will leave soon for San Francisco, where she will visit friends. Mrs. Ballagh's house guest, Mrs. G. M. Marine of the Bay City, has returned home.

In August Musicals.
Members of the Matinee Musical Club will hold a meeting the first Thursday of August at the home of Mrs. J. M. Sealard of Fifth avenue and Washington streets. The affair is to raise funds for a piano for the Florence Critchfield Home.

Enjoying Beach Life.
Mrs. Herman W. Hellman and family and Mr. and Mrs. Marco H. Hall are domiciled in a cozy cottage at Ocean Park.

Birthday Party.
In honor of the birthday anniversary of her husband, Mrs. L. N. Rudy gave a surprise dinner party recently. Pink and white roses adorned the table covers, and the party, which was a feature of the evening.

At an End.
Miss Marion Mitchell of San Diego, who has been the house guest of Miss Florence Wiley of No. 1497 West Eighth

Kind Hearts-Good-Deeds

"How far that little candle throws its beam!
So shines a good deed in a naughty world."

Mrs. Robert Rankin of St. Louis recently threw open her beautiful home, with its several acres of grounds, for the use of thirty-five young girls from the factories of that city. She has also planned a series of big receptions and parties, to which are invited respectively the children, young persons and old folks from the various city institutions. On these occasions the hostess brings forth all the charm of her personality and extends far more pains and appointments than she does for those of her own social stratum. She gives over her entire house and grounds for these events. Recently she entertained inmates from the various old folks' homes. She took them to her house in automobiles, served dinner and gave them an outing on her spacious lawn, taking them for a brief visit to her garden and conservatory. Mrs. Rankin will stay at home for the remainder of the summer and will live her house and time to such functions as these, while those of her class are at sea and lake shore, in the mountains and European resorts.

W. O. Nelson, who was riding with Miss Emma Smackel in an automobile at Roselle, Ill., a few days ago, the hero of a remarkably daring feat whereby both of their lives were undoubtedly saved. As they were crossing the tracks of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad, the car became stalled just as a freight train was running down towards them. The engineer applied the brakes, but the train maintained its velocity. As it was about to crush the automobile and its occupants, Nelson grasped Miss Smackel about the waist and leaped for the engine, clutching a rail and hanging on. The automobile was pushed off the track and the train was not stopped inside of 200 feet. Nelson was only slightly bruised. Miss Smackel's only injury was a nervous shock.

A thoughtful woman recently visiting an old ladies' home, procured the names of all the inmates and later sent them postal cards, sending a number at a time until each had one or two cards. It is simply impossible to estimate the amount of pleasure afforded by this delicate little courtesy to the poor women who have so little to interest them and who spend hours at a time comparing and looking at the cards. A good idea—pass it along.

C. W. Post of Battle Creek, Mich., has offered to donate the magnificent sanatorium building he erected in that city to the new Trades and Workers' Association to be used as a home for the helpless and infirm belonging to the members of the association. Mr. Post has had this great work of benevolence in contemplation for several years, and that its accomplishment has been delayed only by the difficulty of devising a plan by which the intelligent and efficient control and direction could be properly provided for. This difficulty seems to be met by the incorporation of the Trades and Workers' Association.

street, left for her home Tuesday morning. Miss Wiley has gone to Catalina, where she will be the guest of Miss Lela Morrison, who is staying there several weeks.

A Summer Vacation.
Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Luther, Mr. and Mrs. Emmett, Mr. and Mrs. Frye and Mrs. T. Murray are en route to British Columbia for their summer vacation.

Coronado Outing.
Miss Tene Norbury of this city has gone to Coronado for a six weeks' outing.

Mountain Trip Ends.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooker, Miss Irene Hooker, Miss Regina E. Mayer and Miss Rosa Lee Mayer returned this week from Mt. Wilson.

A China Shower.
In honor of Miss Helen Sevier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sevier of West Twenty-fourth street, who is engaged to Walter McCoy of Visalia, Mrs. Paul Brees and Miss Sue Brees of Santa street gave a china shower yesterday. In the living-room and parlor ropes of ferns and smilax combined with hearts and pale pink ribbon streamers were attractive. The hall was gay with greenery and baskets of Cecile Brunner roses. Invitations were accepted by Mrs. Sarah Thompson, Mrs. D. Dennis, Mrs. J. T. Parker of Pasadena, Mrs. L. J. Williams, Mrs. E. Husted, Mrs. E. H. Brees, Mrs. Esther Carpenter of Huntington Beach, Mrs. F. Ashworth, Mrs. H. C. Ciprico, Mrs. J. C. Epperson, Mrs. J. T. Riley, Mrs. G. Moberly, Mrs. E. Rowland, Mrs. J. C. Ennon, Mrs. Lawrence Sevier, Mrs. Milton Sevier, Mrs. M. Ashworth, Mrs. Harold West, Mrs. J. Saunders, Mrs. A. Longley, Mrs. Charles Dickinson of Santa Monica, Mrs. Louis Wilson, Mrs. Pearl Moor, Mrs. J. Beardon, the Misses Mamie Barr, Cora Snyder, Martha Umthack, Ella Dennis, Florence Irish, Anna McNaughton, Edith Benton, Marion Benton, Mrs. Ella Dennis, Miss Edna Padrick, Clara Glen, Merle Stockton, Alice Russell, Jennie Dick, Lulu Whitaker, Lena Whitaker, Maude Whitaker, Mayme Young, Anna Jones, Minnie Dickson and Irene Stephens.

Young-Bridges Nuptials.
Miss Anna Young and Herbert Frank Bridges were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson W. Young of No. 1726 Santee street. Rev. Dr. Warren F. Day officiating. The Misses Catherine and Lucy Young assisted as bridesmaids. Miss Helen Plover played the wedding marches. Madeline Marine was groomsmen. The bride was attired in a dainty white creation over messaline. Her veil was fastened with a cluster of orange blossoms and she carried white roses and lily of the valley. The ceremony was performed in the music room beneath a canopy of arapagus ferns and sweet peas. The reception room was bright with pink carnations, and the parlor was ornamented with garlands and ferns. Supper was served at small tables graced with baskets of sweet peas and ferns. Nelson P. Young, Jr., and Anna V. Young were the ushers. At the conclusion of a tour of the South the young people will reside in Sierra Madre.

On the Way Home.
Mrs. E. P. Bryan and her daughters Mrs. L. T. Bradford and Miss Minnie Bryan, are at the Pacific Hotel, San Francisco. They enjoyed three weeks at Yosemite, and now are on the way to their home, 41 Westmoreland Place.

Young and Jeremiah Sullivan of New York have received gold medals from the Chinese Merchants' Association of that city for heroic action at a fire on May 29th last. Shortly after the fire Guy Main, a member of the Chinese Merchants' Association, wrote a letter to Commissioner Baker asking that the association be allowed to present the medals. The letter stated that the Chinese desired to know the proper way that the thing should be done, so the commissioner gave them the information. The medal consisted of a heavy gold piece, slightly larger than a silver dollar, suspended from a crossbar by chains. On the crossbar was inscribed the policeman's name, while the medal proper held the words, "For his heroic service at the fire on May 29, 1910. Presented by the New York Chinese Merchants' Association." Underneath was another inscription in Chinese characters, which, translated, means, "For heroic service."

tion to the District Court of Appeals to succeed the late Justice Taggart. The new appellate judge bore his honors meekly, and spent some time in pleasant social session with those who called, for he transacted no business, and with the notice of his appointment stepped out of the position of Superior Judge.

Among those who dropped in to take the Judge by the hand were his associates on the Superior Court bench, who extended felicitations that Gov. Gillett had made such a worthy selection for the high judicial honor. The appointment of Judge James to the Appellate Bench made necessary his withdrawal for a position on the State Supreme Court bench, and yesterday he wired every county clerk in whose district his nomination petition had been circulated to that effect. With Judge James dropping out of the roster at the Courthouse, Department One was taken possession of by Judge Hervey, where he will hereafter be located, and the understanding is that when Paul McCormick, who has been appointed to succeed Judge James, qualifies that he will begin the holding of court in Judge Hervey's old department, No. 7. It is possible, however, that there may be a new assignment of certain duties to the new Superior Court judge, and it has been suggested that he may be given the divorce calendar, or perhaps take charge of one of the criminal courts.

There may be a meeting of the judges today to determine matters of this kind in case the commission of Judge McCormick reaches him from Sacramento. Up to the close of court last evening, Judge James had not received his commission. Judge James will take his place on the appellate bench Monday.
